

Please don't allow all our media to be owned by one company -- that is not democracy. I beleive it would be a serious mistake to allow media ownership to be concentrated in the hands of a handful of conglomerates. The serious erosion of competition has already had a significant negative impact on local programming and the expression of free speech. I strongly encourage you to maintain the current limits.